A STUDY OF HISTORY is issued under the auspices of the Royal Institute of International Affairs. The Royal Institute of International Affairs is an unofficial and non-political body, founded in 1920 to encourage and facilitate the scientific study of international questions. A city’s material fortunes, he claimed that she was the education of Hellas. From this angle of vision, which takes not Athens or Sparta or Corinth or Chalcis but the whole of the Hellenic Society as its field, we are able to understand both the significance of the histories of the several communities during the period 725-325 B.C. and the significance of the transition from this period to that which followed.
